

Youth Community Connections

Minnesota's Statewide
Afterschool Alliance

Measuring Youth Program Quality:

Making Quality Matter

Who: Providers and stakeholders of out-of-school time opportunities, policy and decision-makers

When: Wednesday, November 10, 2010 • 9:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Where: Neighborhood House: 179 Robie Street East, St. Paul, MN 55107 - Gymnasium

What: Keynote presentation, Minnesota experiences and facilitated discussions

Keynote Speaker: Nicole Yohalem is the Director of Special Projects at the Forum for Youth Investment. She oversees work related to postsecondary success; out-of-school time; and bridging research, policy and practice.

Meeting Objectives:

- Identify key indicators of program quality.
- Discuss strategies and tools for assessing program quality.
- Learn how measuring program quality can lead to stronger programs and improved outcomes for children and youth.
- Learn strategies to engage decision and policy makers in quality movement.

Admission: Free but you must Register by Wednesday, November 3, 2010!

Contact: Ceil Meade, ceil@youthcommunityconnections.org or 612-627-0160

Please provide your name, organization, email and phone number.

For more information about Youth Community Connections please visit our website:

www.youthcommunityconnections.org.